

House Resolution No. 3762

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, born on June 16, 1903, in Jackson, Missouri, Georgia B. Meyer recently celebrated her One Hundred Second Birthday with a gathering of family members and friends at the Lutheran Home in Cape Girardeau; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities that come with having four sisters and six brothers, Georgia Meyer established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Herman Meyer who loved and cherished her with all of his heart; and

Whereas, the marital union of Georgia and Herman Meyer was blessed with a wonderful child, four grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Georgia Meyer enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Georgia Meyer:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the One Hundred Second Birthday of Georgia Meyer and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Georgia B. Meyer of Cape Girardeau, Missouri.
